

I am the temple of God and Your presence dwells within me because Your Name is written upon my heart. You said Your eyes would be open toward this temple day and night, toward the place where You said You would put Your name. You said when there were disasters of the sword, judgment, pestilence, or famine that You would hear the prayer made in this place. I stand there spiritually, in that place, boldly claiming Your promise to hear my petition and save me. So, I declare my victory over my enemies in the Name of Jesus, Amen!
